THE TRI-WEEKLY STANDARD.

The Hillsboro' Recorder has just discovered that the Democrat said something disagreeable about the course of Mr. Josiah Turner, the member elect to Congress from the seem to comprehend the meaning of our re-necessity for further comment on its article.

But we will repeat, that the course of such men as Mr. Turner has done much to embarrass the President and retard restoration .-

Mr. Turner urged on and commenced a contest in this State last Fall when the people did not desire a political contest but preferred peace and quiet. To satisfy old prejudice and passion Mr. Turner and a few others determined that a struggle for office should be made—and this while he was unpardon-ed and in defiance of the President's proclamation. Had it not been for such conduct we would have had no contention, quarreling and division in this State. We make no professions of having been a Union man ourself during the war, but we think it would have been much better for us all if those who were considered Union men by the United States authorities had been permitted to hold the offices in this State for one year at least, without a contest of any kind. Such a course would have aided and strengthened

President Johnson's liberal and wise policy.

disloyal. The point we make is this, that while quiet prevailed and while there was a prospect that old differences would be buried, Mr. T. exerted himself to foment strife and contention for the public offices; and when the proper time arrives, we are prepared to sustain this charge against other public men in this State. We know something about their course for the last nine months, as well as for the past fifteen or GENERAL REMARKS. Revenue Stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided. Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments. It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to aft; and cancel the stamp thereon. The neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it annot afterwards be effectually stamped. failure upon the part of the maker of an instru-ment to appropriately stump it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars. Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, position, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of seira facias are subject to stamp duty as original processes.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceed of the Peace, Notary Public, or other office, duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certiffeate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount o money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promisory same duty as that imposed upon the original in-strument; that is to say for every sum of live hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents. When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyances of real estate, the law provide that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate on interest conveyed. No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for uch instruments, or either of them. In such a ase a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.
